Chat messages display in chronological order, but if a user is active in the chat, the messages are usually shown in reverse chronological order, i.e. newest first. How do I force chronological order in a scenario where a user is both online and active in the chat? A: If you aren't logged in to your SE account, they can only list chat messages up to an hour in the past. They can't do anything more than that, since the chat is limited to 1,000 users at a time. Thursday, March 26, 2015 Sandy and I were invited to the Polar Vortex game in Toronto on Saturday, and to ice that, they'd arranged for us to stay at a Marriott condo for the night before the game. I knew it wasn't going to be warm by any means, but I was still quite shocked by the cold we were facing. Upon arriving at the condo, we were told we were in room 450, and the temperature in the condo was about 10 degrees Celsius, and it was just getting dark outside. Not that I can complain about being cold, we both agreed the air conditioner in the condo felt a little warm to the touch, but there was no way we'd turn it down to save the electricity. It wasn't ideal, but we managed to get cozy in a few minutes and prepare ourselves for bed. After checking in
